Bethany Poulos, Legislative Aide
Sen. Marco Rubio
Russell Senate Office Building, Room: 284

Dear Bethany,

On behalf of the United Nations Foundation, I would like to extend an invitation to you to participate in an upcoming learning trip to the United Nations Headquarters in New York on Thursday, May 11 – Friday, May 12.

If you are unfamiliar with the United Nations Foundation, we are a public charity that links the UN's work with others around the world, mobilizing the energy and expertise of policymakers, businesses, and NGOs to help the UN tackle global challenges. As part of our mission, we organize several trips per year to UN Headquarters for Members of Congress and staff, providing an opportunity to learn about the UN's work firsthand and ask questions about a wide range of policy initiatives. Our upcoming May 11-12 trip will focus on the health and rights of girls and women globally and the work of UNFPA and UN Women, with a special look at women in humanitarian settings.

The basic format of the trip is as follows:

The delegation takes the train to New York on Thursday evening for a welcome dinner with a guest speaker from the UN. On Friday, you will attend a series of informational meetings beginning with a briefing at the U.S. Mission to the UN, followed by several briefings at the UN by senior UN officials and a tour of the United Nations. The day will end with a working lunch featuring NGOs, UN ambassadors, and U.S. Officials. You will depart New York by 4pm on Friday.

The UN Foundation will arrange all transportation and accommodations, including one night's hotel stay, and ensure they comply with all Senate ethics guidelines.

If you are interested in participating, please let us know by Friday, March 31.

As we begin the year with a new UN Secretary-General and new U. S. President, we hope that you will take this opportunity to learn more about the UN and how it is working to advance the health and rights of girls and women globally.

Sincerely,

Peter Yeo
Vice President of Public Policy
